Activity outline - Amlinell gweithgaredd

Works of art can be completed either on an individual canvas or as a whole group, large-scale project.

- Explore / fforio the outdoors and collect resources
  - Remember to follow all safety procedures and safeguarding processes
- Encourage children to look around for fallen leaves and twigs, flowers, feathers, shells, stones etc.
- Provide the children with a blank, square, individual canvas or framed space on the concrete floor and secure with tape
- Leave the resources for the children to explore and create
  - Remember to discuss why it is important to choose items that have fallen on the ground rather than pulling them from trees etc.
- Encourage children to photograph their finished pieces of art.

Extension – Develop a floor book using the printed photographs of children’s artwork or use a digital photo frame to view the children’s artwork and promote discussion.

More Simple Sentences Rhagor o Frawddegau Syml

Use the following vocabulary when discussing summer time activities and summer weather with the children. You may use the words incidentally throughout play and use one or two of the words in Welsh in the context of an English sentence if you do not feel confident using full Welsh sentences. The more of these words and phrases you use incidentally, the more children will hear the phonetic Welsh alphabet and use this to develop their linguistic skills through repetition. You may also use these words to create labels to place on wall displays or resources around your setting.
